CAP ROCK ENERGY CORPORATION TO BE ACQUIRED BY HUNT, SHARYLAND UTILITIES
Customers Will See No Immediate Change as Hunt, Sharyland Utilities Seeks Approval for the Acquisition

Continental Energy Systems LLC today announced that it has agreed to sell Cap Rock Energy Corporation (“Cap Rock Energy”) and its subsidiary, NewCorp Resources Electric Cooperative, Inc. to Hunt Transmission Services (“HTS”). HTS is managed by Hunter L. Hunt. Hunter Hunt, and other members of the family of Ray L. Hunt, own Sharyland Utilities, L.P. (“Sharyland Utilities”).

Under the terms of the merger agreement, HTS will acquire, among other things, Cap Rock Energy, including all of its electric transmission and distribution assets located in West Texas, Central Texas, and an area northeast of Dallas. These assets will be operated and maintained by Sharyland Utilities. In addition, employees of Cap Rock Energy will become employees of Sharyland Utilities.

This transaction will require regulatory approval from the Public Utility Commission of Texas (“PUCT”) and from various federal agencies, including the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission (“FERC”) and the Department of Justice. Regulatory filings are expected to be filed in early 2010, with all approvals expected by summer 2010.
